The Board of Directors of IHH wishes to announce that on 12 February 2026, NTK has submitted to the Tokyo District Court (“the Court”) a petition to further amend NTK’s claim against Daiichi Sankyo (“Petition to Amend Claims”) and the copy of the Petition to Amend Claims was delivered to Daiichi Sankyo by the Court on 17 February 2026.

As a background, on 14 November 2023 and 20 May 2025, the Company had announced that NTK had sought the following reliefs from Daiichi Sankyo, in accordance with the applicable substantive laws:

- (i) INR109,299,359,054 (equivalent to RM5,708,268,325.95 and JPY199,785,395,700.48)¹ for losses arising from NTK’s tortious claim (other than defamation) against Daiichi Sankyo; JPY5,000,000 (equivalent to RM142,860.00 and INR2,735,419.14)¹ for losses arising from NTK’s defamation claim against Daiichi Sankyo; and the accrued interest on the damages claimed;
- (ii) by way of injunction, to refrain Daiichi Sankyo from obstructing the Open Offers by making defamatory statements to the Security and Exchanges Board of India (“SEBI”) and to any other third parties, including the public at large (“the Injunctive Claim”); and
- (iii) to publish a statement on Daiichi Sankyo’s website and issue a statement to SEBI to vindicate NTK’s reputation.

Pursuant to the completion of the Open Offers on 10 November 2025, the Petition to Amend Claims has been filed with the Court to amend the Injunctive Claim to prevent Daiichi Sankyo from obstructing the acquisition of shares and any other investment and corporate exercises in respect of Fortis and Malar by NTK, by making defamatory statements to SEBI and to any other third parties, including the public at large, in accordance with applicable substantive laws. Apart from this, there is no change to the other reliefs sought by NTK from Daiichi Sankyo.

NTK has reserved its rights to further amend the amount of damages in the Petition to Amend Claims.

The Company will make further announcements in the event of any material developments on the above matter.

This announcement is dated 19 February 2026.
